

Figure 6: Schematic representation of a general practitioner's (GP#1) interpretation of the clinical scenario of a diabetic patient. White boxes indicate information that generated during spontaneous problem solving. Grey boxes indicate new information generated during primed problem solving, not given in during spontaneous problem solving.